TUESDAY EVEN'G., FEBRUARY 3, 1980.

ROMANCE OF A RING. - Late Saturday night eight gentlemen and ladies drove up in coaches to Sleghortner's private restaurant, in Lafayette Place, New York, and made a very jolly party over a first class barquet until long after midnight. Of the four gentlemen one was recognized as agent of one of the great steamship lines, and another as a leading business and society man. The ladics were richly dressed, and two were apparently of the upper ten. At 2 a. m. Sanday the whole party entered the Mercer street police station highly excited.— One of the ladies, who proudly announced her-self as Miss Aline Stowell, a wealthy bankeress of San Francisco, charged that one of the gen tlemen had robbed her of a $300 diamond ring, which she said was in her satchel by her side when they were at the table cating. The gentleman gave his name as O. Livingston, and denied the charge. Mirs Stowell being questioned, admitted that she had told her partner at the table, who was a perfect stranger to her, of the contents of the satchel. She then refused to press the complaint, and left the station house with the rest of the party. She informed the sergeant that at the Hoffman House she had $50 000) deposited in the safe, and did not care for the money value of the rieg.

The Alexandria Gazette, begun in 1790, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives too, not in decay or decrepit, but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest udgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountsins of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of mon and events in the interest of the people of the Common wealth of Virginia

The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest in both the Union and the Commonwealth. The election of the eighteenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations precedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial situation, which may portend affluence and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginia there is political chaos and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of those paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gazatte will be made a WASH-INGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALBNANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of i's mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an orror, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c , which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Cazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the advent of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazette for the country (tri-weekly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum, in advance. THE NEW RATES.
